March is Women's History Month!

Please join us for another great LUNCHEON meeting! We have a terrific guest speaker!

We'll also hear from a member or two who will compete at Annual Convention. Let's all show them our support!

Don't forget! March 12th!

Join us for a visit to see the Justice Bell at the Upper Dublin Library on Sunday, March 12th, at noon. Light refreshments will be served. Bring the kiddos!

Are you a newer member who has not heard the Justice Bell story yet? Check it out here.

BRING YOUR COLORING CONTEST entries - the membership bouquet!

Don't have one? Get it here.

Plan now to attend the BPW/PA Annual Convention! Get the details HERE on the BPW/PA website

#BPWPAEQUALPAYNOW

BPW/PA is asking us to use the hashtag above on our efforts in support of Equal Pay Day on Tuesday, March 14th. LET'S BLITZ FACEBOOK! Remember Dr. Wardlaw's comment that Black Women's Equal Pay Day is not until September - get more info here.

And speaking of BPW/PA: Mo was inspired to attend the Mid-Winter Board Meeting of BPW/PA! It was engaging and informative. As a non-voting attendee, she got to serve as a Page and Teller (vote counter) - fun! There are some interesting Action Items and Information Items that will go on the Annual Convention agenda, including a proposal to change our mission statement wording. "Cookie Monster" showed up at the end, encouraging all to attend the Annual Convention in Langhorne (near Sesame Place) in June!

District 11 will hold their Spring board meeting on April 15th in Pennsburg, and a couple of us will be attending (including our speech competitors). If you're interested in coming along, let us know via email to cmcbpw@gmail.com.
